DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 6-9 and 16-21 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 9/27/07.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 10 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zhang, US 6,437,823.

In considering claims 1, 10 and 12-15,

a) the claimed a mark extracting part...is met by steps 200, 202 of Fig 2, wherein multiple photographs/images are captured by a camera having a different orientation in each stance, which obtains the various feature points/image points (marks).

b)-c) the claimed an internal parameter calculating part...is met by step 210 which calculates based upon the multiple captured images the intrinsic and extrinsic parameters of the camera.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-5 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over by Zhang, US 6,437,823.

In considering claim 2,

Zhang discloses the concept of planar (the claimed flat chart), however Zhang does disclose as references (see reference #9) the concept of stereo camera and calibration thus being an obvious modification/embodiment in the use of Zhang's invention for the immediate purpose of stereo images (application specific/intended use).

In considering claim 3,

As stated above with respect to claim 1, step 210 continuously calculates the intrinsic/extrinsic parameters of the camera, thus meeting the limitations of the claim.

In considering claims 4 and 11

Zhang discloses the concept of calculating parameters of the camera based upon the lens parameters (see claims 5, 10, 11, 19 and 24 of patent). However, Zhang does not disclose the conventional feature "focus" of a camera, although being notoriously well known in the art in the field of endeavor to ensure proper image capturing, the examiner will take "OFFICIAL NOTICE" that focus is a well known feature of cameras and their calibration.

In considering claim 5,

Zhang discloses the radial distortion of the lens as being factors in the camera calibration calculation (see claim 24 of patent).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure—see newly cited references on attached form PTO-892. The examiner also notes numerous X references annotated in the applicant's cited European Search Report, thus the examiner would like the applicant to clarify the original claims in view of the report, in order to expedite prosecution.

The Patent Electronic Business Center (EBC) allows USPTO customers to retrieve data, check the status of pending actions, and submit information and applications. The tools currently available in the Patent EBC are Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) and the Electronic Filing System (EFS). PAIR (<http://pair.uspto.gov>) provides customers direct secure access to their own patent application status information, as well as to general patent information publicly available. EFS allows customers to electronically file patent application documents securely via the Internet. EFS is a system for submitting new utility patent applications and pre-grant publication submissions in electronic publication-ready form. EFS includes software to help customers prepare submissions in extensible Markup Language (XML) format and to assemble the various parts of the application as an electronic submission package. EFS also allows the submission of Computer Readable Format (CRF) sequence listings for pending biotechnology patent applications, which were filed in paper form.
